A selection of parental comments:

What has gone well?

"My son is getting the help that he needs, I couldn't be happier."

"The return to school in September is always challenging as a parent but the school have helped make the move into year 6 very smooth."

"Well organised"

"A good welcome and transition between years."

"Everything seems to be going really well so far, my children are new but they are loving the school and the teachers and staff are all fantastic - really helpful, patient and cooperative."

"My son's progress."

What can we improve next year?

"Maybe have more places in after school clubs so children aren't disappointed."

"Start transport services for kids"

"Keep up lots of photos showing what's happening in school"

"Increase homework"
